

LLB (Hons)

The Bachelor of Laws (LLB) degree programme at Greenwich School of Management offers students the opportunity to study an accelerated programme over two calendar years. The LLB has been developed to equip students with a sound understanding of the fundamental principles of English law and has been designed to be taught in three academic stages. Students will gain firsthand knowledge of relevant legal theories, as well as grasping the full extent to which law is applied.

On successful completion of the LLB (Hons), Students will be in a position to fully utilise their qualification in both the private and public sectors. Moreover, students graduating with this degree will have completed the relevant foundations of legal knowledge subjects, allowing them to enter professional vocational courses such as the Legal Practice Course and the Bar Vocational Course.
